PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

There are a lot of unexpected things that could happen before or during your trip that could cause you to lose your trip investment or require you to pay unexpected costs. This product provides coverage for a wide variety of unexpected expenses including emergency medical, trip interruption, trip delay, baggage, as well as other travel accident expenses.

Here is a summary of the product's main coverages:

|---|--|
| Trip Interruption (See policy – pages 8-15) | This benefit covers you in case you have to end a trip that's already begun (on or after your trip departure date) for an unexpected reason such as your own sudden illness, the illness of your travelling companion, or a delayed flight that causes you to miss a large part of your trip. |
| Trip Delay (See policy – pages 15-17) | Even if your trip is delayed due to unexpected reasons, you may still want to catch up and enjoy the rest of it. For example, you could find out, after arriving at the airport, that your flight is delayed until the next morning because of a snowstorm. This benefit helps cover your hotel fees and meal expenses while you wait. |
| Emergency Medical Expenses (See policy – pages 18-25) | Imagine you unexpectedly injure yourself or become ill while outside your province of residence. This benefit provides coverage against the resulting hospital charges and emergency medical expenses that arise. |
| Baggage (See policy – pages 25-27) | Coverage is provided if your luggage is lost, stolen, or damaged during your trip. Reimbursement is also available if your passport, travel visa, birth certificate, and/or driver's license is lost, stolen, or damaged. |
| Travel Accident (See policy – pages 27-29) | Coverage is provided if you suffer a loss of life or loss of a limb while travelling on your trip. |

What is my TRIP COST?

Your trip cost is any money you paid related to your trip. This can include the cost of your airline ticket, hotel, tour, cruise, etc.

WHAT IS COVERED?

To know what your maximum reimbursement would be for each benefit, see the 'Schedule of Maximum Benefits' on page 4 of the policy.

Trip Interruption

(See policy - pages 8-15)

We reimburse your unused, non-refundable trip cost payments and make sure you get home if you are unable to continue on your trip for one of the listed reasons in the policy.

For example, if a family member at home gets sick and you need to return home, we pay for your return flight home. In addition, we reimburse your non-refundable costs for any missed travel days up to the trip cost amount you purchased. Some expenses are reimbursed up to a fixed amount.

For Example:

You are already on your trip, when you hear that your father has become seriously ill. You decide to stop your trip and return home to care for him. The only available flight home is tomorrow morning which means you need to wait and book a hotel close to the airport so you can catch the early morning flight home.

With a TIPS Post Departure Plan, you would be eligible for reimbursement for:

- your cost to return home (full cost);
- any non-refundable days you haven't used (up to your trip cost); and
- up to $350 per day to a maximum of $1,000 for unexpected accommodation and any meals (fixed amounts).

Trip Delay

(See policy - pages 15-17)

We reimburse certain unexpected costs you have to pay when your travel is delayed due to the reasons listed in the policy.

For Example:

You are travelling and have a connecting flight which is scheduled as the last flight of the day. Due to a delay in your first flight leaving for a reason beyond your control, you miss your connecting flight. Since there are no other flights that day, you need to spend a night in a hotel and leave on the first available flight the next morning. The airline also charges you a change fee. Since the total delay is more than 6 hours, with a TIPS Post Departure Plan you would be eligible for reimbursement for:

- the change fees or additional fares to continue on your trip (up to $1,500); and
- up to $350 per day to a maximum of $1,000 for accommodations and meals.

NOTE

- Trip Delay coverage is meant to help you with the extra expenses to catch up to your trip. If you experience a delay, you need to make reasonable efforts to continue on your covered trip.

Emergency Medical Expenses

(See policy - pages 18-25)

We reimburse your medical expenses and certain other direct expenses you have to pay if you have an unexpected medical emergency during your trip.

The policy pays for the reimbursement of reasonable expenses. Some expenses are reimbursed up to a fixed amount.

For Example:

It's the last day of your trip when you fall and break your ankle. You go to a hospital for emergency medical care. The doctor tells you cannot fly home tomorrow as originally planned and have to extend your trip by 3 days to let your ankle heal. You book a hotel for the extra days and purchase extra meals. With a TIPS Post Departure Plan, you would be fully reimbursed for any medical care provided. And you would be eligible for reimbursement up to $350 per day to a maximum of $3,500 for your accommodation and meals.

Baggage

(See policy – page 25-27)

We reimburse any direct expenses you may have if your baggage is lost, stolen, damaged or delayed during your trip.

For Example:

You reach your travel destination when you realize your luggage is not there with you! The airline staff later confirm that it is lost. With a TIPS Post Departure Plan, you would be eligible for reimbursement up to $1,500 for the replacement of your baggage and its contents.

Reimbursement for some baggage items is limited, including your birth certificate, passport and cash. See pages 25-27 of the policy for details.

Travel Accident

(See policy - pages 27-29)

We pay the maximum benefit if you suffer a loss of life or loss of a limb while on your trip.

Travel Assistance

See page 10 of this summary for details.

NOTES

- This policy is secondary to all other sources of coverage and all other sources of recovery.
- For emergency medical expenses, we pay over and above what your government (RAMQ), university (UHIP) or private health plan allows.

WHAT IS NOT COVERED?

What are the reasons we will not pay a claim?

There are several situations and reasons why your claim may not be paid. These are listed in the policy in the Policy Exclusions section (see pages 30-36).

The most common reason for denial is due to a pre-existing condition that is not stable.

A pre-existing condition is a medical condition that exists before your effective date (the date when coverage under your policy starts). See page 4 of this summary to review when coverage starts.

A pre-existing condition must be stable for a certain number of days before your effective date.

Not sure if you have a pre-existing condition?

Consult with your doctor.

Stable means:

1. You didn't have any new treatment, changes to treatment, or stoppage of treatment;
2. There were no changes to any prescribed drugs you take (including increases, decreases, or stoppages);
3. Your condition didn't get worse;
4. None of your symptoms changed;
5. You weren't admitted to a hospital or referred to a specialist;
6. No recommended tests or investigations were pending; and
7. You didn't have treatment planned or pending.

All points above must be true for a condition to be stable.

NOTE

- The number of days that your pre-existing condition needs to be stable is different for different coverages and ages. See the charts below for details.

Trip Interruption and Emergency Medical Coverage:

| Your Age | Pre-Existing Condition Stability Period |
|-----------------|--|
| 0-59 | 60 days before (and including) the day you leave for your trip |
| 60-74 | 90 days before (and including) the day you leave for your trip |
| 75-89 | 180 days before (and including) the day you leave for your trip |

There is no coverage for these conditions, even if they are stable:

1. A heart condition that needs nitroglycerine more than once a week; or
2. A lung condition that needs home oxygen or oral steroids.

PRE-EXISTING CONDITION EXAMPLE

Mary is 50 years old and has a pre-existing condition of migraines...

|-----------------------------|---|
| June 10th | Mary books a trip to France to travel from July 1 st to July 10 th and purchases a TIPS Post Departure policy. |
| July 2nd | One day into her trip, Mary decides to interrupt her trip and return home because she is experiencing migraines. Mary files a claim with her insurance company for the following unused, part of her pre-paid, non-refundable costs plus change fees on her return flight: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $1,500 for her unused hotel and tour arrangements • $1,000 for her change fees on her return flight |
| July 8th | The insurance company, in processing the claim, finds medical documentation which indicates that Mary was seen on June 1 st for migraine pain and that her doctor later scheduled her to have an MRI done. |

In this example, Mary is filing a claim for her unused hotel and tour arrangements and change fees of $2,500 (trip interruption coverage). Because Mary is 50 years old and claiming for interruption coverage, her pre-existing condition needs to be stable for 60 days before her policy departure date (July 1st).

Mary's condition was not stable because her condition got worse/her symptoms changed on June 1st, during the 60-day period leading up to July 1st. As a result, her claim of $2,500 would not be covered under the policy.

Generally, the older you are, the longer you are travelling, and the higher your trip cost, the higher your premium will be.

QUESTIONS?

If you have any questions or concerns, speak with your travel agent.

The purpose of this fact sheet is to inform you of your rights.
It does not relieve the insurer or the distributor of their obligations to you.

LET'S TALK INSURANCE!

Name of distributor: _____

Name of insurer: _____

Name of insurance product: _____

IT'S YOUR CHOICE

You are never required to purchase insurance:

- that is offered by your distributor;
- from a person who is assigned to you; or
- to obtain a better interest rate or any other benefit.

Even if you are required to be insured, you do not have to purchase the insurance that is being offered. You can choose your insurance product and your insurer.

HOW TO CHOOSE

To choose the insurance product that's right for you, we recommend that you read the summary that describes the insurance product and that must be provided to you.

DISTRIBUTOR REMUNERATION

A portion of the amount you pay for the insurance will be paid to the distributor as remuneration. The distributor must tell you when the remuneration exceeds 30% of that amount.

RIGHT TO CANCEL

The Act allows you to rescind an insurance contract, at no cost, within 10 days after the purchase of your insurance. However, the insurer may grant you a longer period of time. After that time, fees may apply if you cancel the insurance. Ask your distributor about the period of time granted to cancel it at no cost.

If the cost of the insurance is added to the financing amount and you cancel the insurance, your monthly financing payments might not change. Instead, the refund could be used to shorten the financing period. Ask your distributor for details.
